ALCOHOLICS EASTSIDE INTERGROUP ANONYMOUS

From the Spiral # 67 by Matthew T.

The following are just a few one-liners from our fellowship to help us stay close to our program in addition to some commentary about the quote.

1. Do the things in the book, and God will show up in a way that makes sense.

It is safe to say that when you're new, the last thing you want to hear at meetings is the subject of a Higher Power, and yet, this tends to be the topic in those first few meetings. Such was the case for me as I was open to working the steps with a Sponsor except the ones pertaining to God. A friend of mine shared this during a meeting last week, and I wish I had heard this when I was new. Our program acts as a healing medicine that produces massive results from a surprisingly small amount of work. The steps are in order for a reason. Begin the work, go to meetings, and follow your Sponsor's suggestions. It's only a matter of time before a higher power of your own will show up in your life in a way that you will move toward.

2. Let go or be dragged.

It is always a good idea to ask yourself what your Higher Power wants FOR you instead of asking WHY. A great exercise is to meet with your Sponsor and come up with your own definition of God in terms of what he or she or it wants for you. Is your God a punishing God or a protective God? Does your God want to provide abundance or scarcity? My God wants me to let go. You may have seen a few of our members wearing a bracelet that exemplifies Step 2: God's Got This. We struggle with two things: access and attachments. Regarding letting go, we become attached to outcomes, control, and put undue pressure on ourselves. When we are attached, we suffer. Our attachments hold us back from enjoying this experience of living and serving others. Sobriety is a miracle, but so is emotional sobriety. The key to making room for emotional sobriety begins with letting go of something you cannot change. The Serenity Prayer is all about priming us to keep in mind what is and is not within our control.

3. Move it from the head to the heart.

This notion reads like a Hallmark Card, but for me, this has everything to do with first thought/second thought. As I have mentioned before, my head is always first, and I have been programmed to say the following: FIRST THOUGHT: WRONG. Eventually, my heart produces an opposite energy that for this alcoholic is my communication from God. In my head, live my character defects. In my heart, live the assets that never steer me wrong. What I am working on now in my recovery is trying to push my heart closer to the front of the line through mindfulness. When I get stuck on something like an expectation, a resentment, or some obsessive thought that hijacks me, I pause, wait, and listen. Whether it's someone else, the environment, or even a prayer, I can move a thought from the head to the heart, which usually allows me to move on, let go, and return to where my feet are. Remember, this is a practice. It takes time and supportive friends around us to develop this skill. Be patient, but keep working at it, so you'll have a lot less amends to make.

I hope this helps and I'll see you at a meeting.

-Matthew T.

D34 ORAL HISTORIES PROJECT

DO YOU KNOW:

- a "long-timer" in D34 with 35+ years of sobriety?
- an AA member who started an AA group in D34?
- someone with a connection to the history of AA as a whole and its pioneers?
- an AA member of an underrepresented background whose experience, strength, and hope can carry the message to the still suffering alcoholic?

If so, please contact D34 Archives Chair Jaimie L. at dist34archives@area72aa.org for more info on becoming an interviewer and/or interviewee. Help preserve District 34's rich AA history for generations to come!

Service Opportunities Await!

Want to grow in sobriety? Give back through service!

District 38 has several exciting open service positions — a chance to connect, learn, and help carry the message of A.A. beyond the meeting room.

Treatment Facilities Chair

Help bring A.A. meetings and "Bridging the Gap" support to those leaving treatment centers. Coordinate with local districts, maintain contacts, and share Grapevine subscriptions.

Grapevine & Literature Chair

Be the link between members and A.A. materials! Keep literature displays current, bring them to workshops and assemblies, and promote Grapevine reps in groups.

Corrections Chair

Carry the message behind the walls. Support A.A. meetings in correctional facilities and help guide committees through training and assistance.

Accessibility Chair

Make A.A. available to all who seek it. Focus on access issues, remote communities, and language inclusivity. Participate in Area meetings.

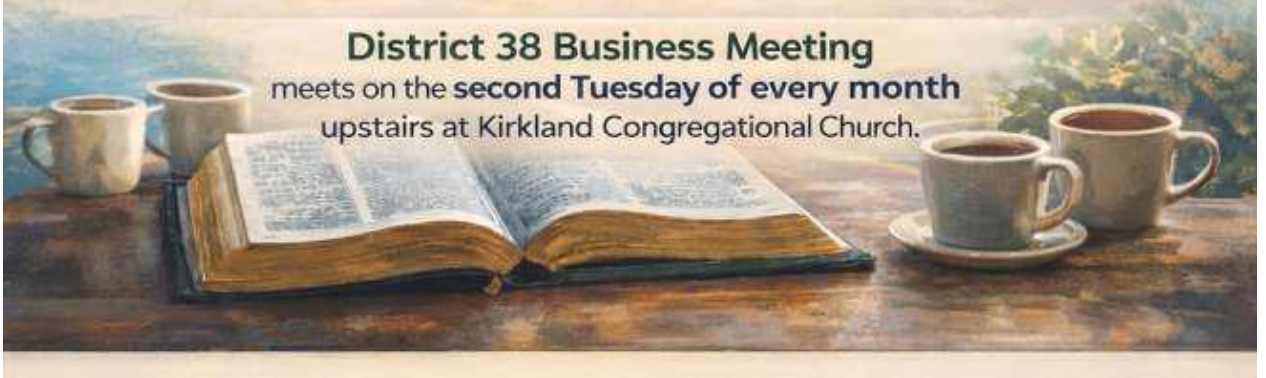

Coming Spring 2026:

District Service Workshop

Learn how to get involved, meet trusted servants, and explore what district service is all about.

District 35 Statement of Purpose

We serve to ensure all groups in our district feel informed, supported, heard, and loved within and throughout the A.A. service structure.

We do this through:

- Our group General Service Representatives (GSRs), the lifeline between our groups and the district.
- Our Service Committees, who carry the message to Alcoholics still suffering both outside and inside the rooms of A.A.
- Open and transparent monthly district meetings, held the 3rd Wednesday of each month at 7:30pm, at Pine Lake Covenant Church.
- Workshops and informative presentations (e.g., Delegate Report Out, Assembly Highlights given by GSRs), and Fellowship events, such as the yearly Gratitude Dinner.

We are trusted servants to our groups, directly responsible to those we serve. We do not govern.

We give back that which was so freely given to us.

ONE NIGHT CAN CHANGE A LIFE.

30 Years of Carrying the Message

LIVE AT PINE LAKE SPEAKER MEETING

For more than 30 years, Live at Pine Lake has welcomed inspiring AA speakers from across North America, carrying a message of hope, recovery, and fellowship to thousands throughout the Eastside.

Every month, someone walks through our doors needing exactly what they hear that night.

WE'RE ASKING FOR YOUR HELP.

For 30 years, someone has been there every month to carry the message.

Today, we need our community to help carry this meeting.

Attendance and Seventh Tradition donations have declined to the point that without additional support, Live at Pine Lake may no longer be able to continue.

If nothing changes, this meeting could close its doors after more than three decades of carrying the message.

We don't want that to happen.

Not because of the meeting itself—but because someone you haven't met yet may walk through those doors next month looking for hope.

If this meeting has ever inspired you...

- If you've ever laughed with friends after the meeting...
- If you've ever heard a speaker who changed your perspective...
- If you've ever brought a newcomer...
- If you've ever left feeling more hopeful than when you arrived...

Now is the time to help ensure this meeting is here for the next person who needs it.

In Loving Memory of

Fran Thomas

Fran Thomas, well-known to many in the AA fellowship, moved on to that first step hall in heaven early on Friday, September 18th.

Fran was 99 years old and for 54 of those years, Fran was sober. She was a sponsor to countless women and provided guidance to many men. She was a force to be reckoned with but always with a soul that was loving and kind. A fierce advocate for recovery, she obtained her counseling credentials at Seattle U and worked at Lakeside Milam as an aftercare counselor.

While she got sober in the Southend of King County, when she moved to Bellevue, Fran's home group was Bellevue Group on Monday nights. She also attended the weekly Bel-East Luncheon Group and forever her heart was with meetings at the Alano Club where she always made time for newcomers.

Her family has asked that anyone who would like to, please join them in celebrating Fran on

2027 OSAT Glacier Climbing Course Scholarships

OSAT is proud to announce the scholarship program is back for the 2027 GCC! Scholarships will cover all course fees and include $2,500 for gear, distributed in three scheduled disbursements.

What are the requirements?

- You must be in recovery.
- You must answer ALL prompts in an essay or video.
- You must provide three personal references.

When is the deadline?

Essay OR video AND three personal references must be submitted by October 31st, 2026.

How do I apply?

Answer ALL 5 prompts in a 250 word essay or 3 min video and email along with three personal references (including name, phone number, and email address) to: gccscholarship@osat.org. Incomplete submissions will not be considered.

Submission must address ALL prompts:

1. The mission of OSAT is "to provide a clean and sober environment for members of 12-step recovery groups and their families and friends to participate in outdoor and social events in the spirit of recovery, conservation, ecology and stewardship". What does recovery in the outdoors mean to you?

2. Explain why you are applying and how this scholarship will benefit your GCC journey.

3. OSAT's Glacier Climbing Course runs from January until July, requiring monthly evening seminars, weekend field trips, monthly conditioners, and two overnights, all in preparation for graduation and Rainier climbs. How you will navigate this time commitment?

4. This course is run by volunteers. How do you plan to give back as a graduate of the GCC in the future?

5. What do you hope to gain from participating in the GCC?

ESIG OFFICE REPORT 10/1/2026

Summary

September 2026 brought steady progress for Eastside Intergroup (ESIG), closing out the month with total revenue holding neck-and-neck with September of last year. Financially, we achieved a net revenue of $925.39 for the month, representing a significant year-to-date improvement over 2025 (-$4787.10). Operationally, plans are shifting into high gear for our upcoming holiday open house, and a potential spring/fall gala event.

Financial Overview

Monthly Performance September 2026

- Net Revenue: Closed at $925.39 for the month.
- Gross Profit: Increased 25% (+$2,000) compared to last September, driven by favorable margins.
- Revenue Highlights:
  - Contributions rose 7% overall.
  - Birthday Club contributions had an outstanding month, with 13 members contributing a total of $988.
  - Anonymous donations increased by $100 ($200 total).
  - Gift item sales grew by $100, though overall merchandise sales experienced an 11% drop.
- Expense Management: Overhead costs were successfully reduced across the board, with people costs down 8% and office costs down 9%.

Year-to-Date (YTD) Snapshot

While we are navigating some shifts in our revenue streams, our bottom line shows an upward trajectory:

Metric	YTD Performance vs. 2025	Impact
Net Revenue	-$4,442 vs. -$7,125 last year	+$2,683 improvement
Total Merchandise Sales	Up 18% (+$9,000)	Gift sales up 76% (+$800); Coin sales down 4% (-$600)
Total Contributions	Down $9,160	Group down ~$9,400; Anon down $500; Birthday up $1,140
Gross Profit	Down 10% (-$10,000)	This Reflects rising costs of goods sold
Total Expenditures	Down $7,000	Driven primarily by a $5,200 reduction in people costs

Event Updates

- Mariners Game Wrap-Up: The game officially sold out in its final days. Looking forward to next year, the Mariners have implemented a strict no-refund policy on ticket purchases. We will factor this into our next bulk order planning.
- Holiday Open House (Dec 5th, 10 AM – 2 PM): The event flyer is now on our website -please save the date and help spread the word! It should be a really fun event!
    - New this year: Raffle Prizes, a Popcorn machine (Free popcorn along with lots of other sweet/salty snacks), free (with any purchase) 2026 AA ornament, handmade jewelry, Bill W. plants for sale, Sober Joe Coffee, emotional support crocheted friends (think dumpster fire friend and motivational flower friends) and more. Stop by to see what's new!
    - Logistics: A newly gifted 10x20 canopy and outdoor heater will be set up outside to create an outdoor fellowship area with tables/chairs, freeing up indoor store space for shopping and mingling.
    - How you can help: Our flyer has a QR code that can be used to signup to help at our event – either with a quick setup/cleanup, offering to bring a treat to share, or to donate a raffle basket. Or you can help just by spreading the word about our event, and stopping by to enjoy some fellowship and do a little shopping – we'd love to see you!
- Gala Fundraising Concept / Silent Auction: ESIG is in the beginning stages of planning a new event for 2027 – a fun Gala event / Silent Auction. If you'd like to help plan this event, let me know – we'd love the help!

Website Compromise Update:

- On September 19th we were made aware that our website meeting guide had been hacked. Our web chair, Blaine, worked quickly to pull the site down, clean it, and reinstall. He had the website back up and running on Sunday. (And a big thank you to John B for being on call and present also as we worked through this).
- A list of email addresses associated with our newsletter signup could possibly have been accessed (no indication that this occurred, but please be vigilant for fraudulent emails coming to you, as always.) Anyone who might have been affected was notified on Sept 21st.
- Since then, no further problems have occurred with our website.
- Meetings have been updated and all seem to be functioning fine now. Please check to make sure your group listings are all showing up correctly as some of these had to be manually added back in.
- Blaine has added 2 factor authentication among other safety precautions to prevent this from reoccurring.
- Please call/email if you have any further questions!

ICOAA Travel & November Board Meeting

I am planning to attend the ICOAA Seminar for Intergroup and Central Office workers in San Antonio this November to network and bring back new ideas.

Because I will be traveling on November 5th, I will join both Business meetings via zoom next month.
